Eyes That See.

Eyes that see can find much food for thought in this town.They can see the opportunities for development and expansion and for the making of this community a thriving hive of industry.The big cities are overcrowded and are worried sick over incessant labor troubles.They are staggering under a mountain of profiteering price increases in every department of the manufacturing world.Rents, taxes, power, light, heat, everywhere their bills of expense are mounting higher from day to day, with apparently no relief in sight.It is small wonder they demand enormous prices for their products.In this town it would be different. There would be none of the abnormal expenditures necessary in the large cities.Labor can be had for less than city rates, because other expenses are less here.As much work and as good a product can be turned out here in a day as can be produced in any city.The person purchases an article of manufacture considers the value of the article and not the place where it was made.If we can produce just as good an article here and sell it for less than the city made article there is no reason why it should not command a ready sale.With conditions as they are there is no reason why we should not have a number of thriving factories right here in Big Stone Gap.Eyes that see have already seen the opportunities that are before us.But it takes more than eyes to float an enterprise that calls for the initial expenditure of money.

Have we the other requisites?

Institute for Church Workers.

A one day institute for church workers will be held under the auspices of the Episcopal church on next Tuesday, August 24th, the object of which is to have all persons who are connected with, or interested in church work of any kind, spend a whole day considering questions of vital importance to the church as a whole. There will be three sessions of the conference, the morning and afternoon gatherings being on the lawn of Mr. J. L. McHormick's home, while the night meeting will be in the church at eight o'clock. The speakers have been chosen because of their special fitness to handle the subjects assigned them, and are among the foremost clergy men of the Episcopal church in Virginia. Bishop Robert C. Jett, of the Diocese of Southwestern Virginia, will be the principal speaker of the evening, and it is expected that a large congregation will be in the church to hear him. An attractive feature of the institute will be an application of the picnic idea; all who plan to attend being requested to bring their own lunch to be eaten on the grounds; and every one, regardless of denominational affiliation, is most heartily invited. The children are especially wanted, and there will be special features in the program for them.

In this country all men are born free and equal, and they remain so until the Lord, the devil or the jailer claims them.

Some people spend half of their time in praising themselves and the other half in angling for praise from others.

The fellow who loses his temper and calls another a fool of ten convinces bystanders that he is himself deficient in mental attainments.

Rural Sunday School Campaign in Lee and Wise Counties.

In carrying out the campaign of the Sunday school department of the Baptist State Mission Board in cooperation with the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, in behalf of more efficient and more effective Sunday schools in Virginia, Mr. H. P. White has been conducting institutes in the New Normal Manual and other courses of the convention system, for the past two months in Lee and Wise. The first half of the period was spent in Wise and institute work was done at the following places: East Stone Gap, Hurricane and Stanley's Chapel, with an enrollment for class work of 35 and a total average of attendance of about 65.
Since beginning work in Lee the "Field Worker" has enrolled 23 persons in class work and has had a total average attendance of 44 in two institutes.
Nor has the work been confined solely to leading study classes.
Radio and personal work and distributing books and pamphlets have taken much of the time.

Sunday school leaders everywhere have come to realize that the Sunday school must be graded and organized to meet fully its opportunities in the religious life of today. Leaders no longer try to mould the pupil to fit into an organization which does not consider the desires, abilities and natures of growing boys and girls. The time has come when the school is made to fit the pupil. Teachers must study the pupil as well as the lesson they would teach, if they wish to be successful in the calling. Hence today emphasis is not only put on the pupil but also on the methods used in teaching that pupil, in the Sunday school.

Many of us shut our eyes to the fact that the work in our Sunday schools needs a revolution in methods and organization. We are too willing to let "good enough" alone. And while we rest serenely at our oars, the boys and girls of the community are fast losing a taste for Christianity and even now consider the Sunday school a place fit only for "old woman and kids." Your writer goes to Sunday school and he is not a woman; nor does he allow people to say that his parents are goats. Like the old farmer who when he saw a grackle, shook his head and declared, "There ain't no such animal," so many of us would try deny this truth out of existence.

D. C. WOLFE

telegram received here by Williams Monday morning. The message was sent by V. D. Potts who stated he had captured both Rich and the car and had lodged Rich in jail at Rock Hill, S. C.

Rich came here several months ago from Lincolnton, N. C., and was employed as a truck driver at the Royal Laundry. He hired Williams' car stating that he only wanted it for two hours and then left the country. Williams gave pursuit and followed him to a point in North Carolina where he lost track of him and returned home.

Deputy Sheriff John Qualls, accompanied by Williams, left Tuesday morning for Rock Hill to bring back Rich and the car.

It is also reported Rich will have to answer to the charge of stealing a Buick touring car from Gus Finger at Lincolnton, when he came to this place. The car was sold to some one in this section and it is said Finger will come here within a few days to claim his car.

New U. D. C. Officers Elected

The United Daughters of the Confederacy, of the Gap, met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sally A. Bailey and new officers for the coming year were elected.

After the business meeting, a very entertaining, historical and musical program was rendered.

Mrs. Bailey served a delicious ice course at the close of the afternoon to the twenty members and guests present. The new officers elected are:

Mrs. C. C. Cochran, president; Mrs. George L. Taylor, first vice president; Mrs. Sally A.
Bailey, second vice president; Mrs. Malcolm Smith, historian; Mrs. H. A. Alexander, registrar; Mrs. D. C. Wolfe, treasurer; Mrs. J. L. McCormick, recording secretary, and Miss Janet Bailey, corresponding secretary.

"Hello, John, heard the news?
The school teacher has just licked the tar out of an unruly pupil, and everybody is talking about it—says he should have whipped him long ago." "Good enough—I hope he laid it on good and heavy. Boys are getting to be smarter than their parents, and it is time for them to be taught their proper place."
"It's fine of you to look at it that way, John—it was your own boy he licked," commended the first speaker. "What's that? Whipped my boy, did he?

I'll smash his infernal face for him, I will. No upstart of a teacher can lay hands on my boy and get away with it." It makes a difference who gets the licking.

A citizen met the editor of a paper on the street one day.
"Why don't you publish the news?" he asked, with a disapproving frown. "Young J got into a brawl and beat another boy up and you didn't say a word about it in the paper.
Such things should be given full publicity in order to suppress rowdiness," he resumed.
A few weeks later his own son was rounded up in a juvenile scrape, and he hunted the editor in a hurry. "Don't say anything in the paper about that little escapade of the boy's," he pleaded; "it was only a lark and boys will be boys, you know." It makes a difference whose boy is involved.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan with electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3½-inch tires all around, is the ideal family car because of its around utility and refined and comfortable equipment. Finely upholstered. Plate glass windows. An open car in the spring, summer, and early fall. A closed car in inclement weather and winter. For theatre parties, for social visiting, for touring, and for taking the children to school, it is just what you want. The low cost of operation and maintenance is not the least of its charms. A regular Ford car, simple in design, strong in construction, and durable in service. Won't you come in and look it over? The comforts of an electric car with the economy of the Ford.
